Pursuant to D.C. Code § 34-912(b)(2) and 15 D.C.M.R. 2701.1, 2707 and 1300 et seq., the Public Service Commission assesses telecommunications providers in the District of Columbia for the Commission and the Office of the People's Counsel's operating budget and monitors the level of competition in the District. To gauge the status of competition in the District and to provide annual jurisdictional revenue information for budgetary assessment purposes, the Commission requires that each telecommunications provider serving the District complete the attached survey and provide a notarized affidavit to assure the accuracy of the reported information.

More specifically, we require information on whether your company was supplying jurisdictional telecommunications services to end users in the District of Columbia as of December 31, 2016 and, if so, the number of customers served and lines supplied. In addition, please provide your company's calendar year 2016 gross jurisdictional revenue. For the purpose of this survey, "gross jurisdictional revenue" is defined as gross revenues derived from operations regulated by the Commission in the District of Columbia, which does not include revenue derived from wireless, Voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP) and Internet Protocol (IP)-enabled services. The gross jurisdictional revenue figure cannot be reduced by amount such as, but not limited to, gross receipts taxes, delivery charges, surcharges, or pass through charges. Based on your company's gross jurisdictional revenue figures for calendar year 2016, the Commission will determine your company's applicable assessment for the fiscal year 2017 operating budgets of the Commission and the Office of the People's Counsel.

Please file your completed survey and attached affidavit with the Commission Secretary's office no later than April 15, 2017. Failure to submit the requested documents on time may subject the company to a penalty of $100.00 for each day the filing is late, pursuant to 15 DCMR § 1301.3. If any of the provided information is confidential and proprietary, please clearly mark it as such.

If you have any questions, please contact Jason Benati, Senior Accountant, at (202) 626-5146 or jbenati@psc.dc.gov.

By the Direction of the Commission:

Brinda Westbrook-Sedgwick
Commission Secretary
