

Your Energy. Your Voice.

Media Advisory

For Immediate Release: May 13, 2019

Contact: Kellie Didigu, kdidigu@psc.dc.gov, 202-626-5124

Public Service Commission Holds Second Community Hearing on Gas Safety in the District

WHAT: The Public Service Commission of the District of Columbia's (Commission) is holding a follow-up Community Hearing on Gas Safety in the District. The Commission has requested Washington Gas Light Company (WGL) to update the public on its recent actions and future plans to address the community concerns articulated during the Commission's February 6, 2019, Community Hearing on natural gas leaks (Formal Case No. 977). In addition to WGL, the Office of the People's Counsel (OPC), Advisory Neighborhood Commissions (ANCs), and interested persons are invited to make oral presentations. District residents are also encouraged to provide comments during the hearing. The public can also watch the live stream at the Commission's website at www.dcpssc.org. For members of the public unable to attend or watch the live stream of the Community Hearing, an archived video of the hearing can be viewed at: <https://dcpssc.org/Newsroom/Media-Streaming.aspx>

WHEN: Wednesday, May 15, 2019 at 2:00 p.m.

WHERE: Public Service Commission of the District of Columbia
1325 G Street, N.W. Suite 800, Washington D.C. 20005

WHO: Willie L. Phillips, Chairman
Richard A. Beverly, Commissioner
Greer J. Gillis, Commissioner

For more information about the Community Hearing, visit the Commission's website at www.dcpssc.org or call 202-626-5150.

The Public Service Commission of the District of Columbia is an independent agency established by Congress in 1913 to regulate electric, natural gas, and telecommunications companies in the District of Columbia.

1325 G Street, N.W. Suite 800, Washington, D.C. 20005
dcpssc.org * 202-626-5120