PUBLIC NOTICE

JANUARY 18, 2023, DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA CLEAN ENERGY
SUMMIT: PATH TO DECARBONIZATION

December 8, 2022

Through this Public Notice, the Public Service Commission of the District of Columbia (Commission) announces its 2023 District of Columbia Clean Energy Summit: Path to Decarbonization. The Commissioner-led Clean Energy Summit is scheduled for Wednesday, January 18, 2023, from 12:45 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. The keynote speaker will be Willie L. Phillips, Commissioner, Federal Energy Regulatory Commission. There will be three panels regarding: 1) Inflation Reduction Act and the Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act; 2) Workforce and Supply Chain Development; and 3) Affordability. Commission Chairman Emile C. Thompson and Commissioner Richard A. Beverly will also be speaking.

The Commission will issue a supplemental notice including a detailed agenda, panelists, and other information for the Clean Energy Summit. Register for the event and learn more at <https://dcpsc.org/ces>.
