GENERAL DOCKET NO. 2019-04-M, IN THE MATTER OF THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE 2019 CLEAN ENERGY DC OMNIBUS ACT COMPLIANCE REQUIREMENTS,

1. The instant matter is an active proceeding before the Public Service Commission of the District of Columbia (“Commission”) regarding the Implementation of the 2019 Clean Energy DC Omnibus Act Compliance Requirements. By Order No. 21938, the Commission reviewed the Clean Energy Act Implementation Working Group’s (“CEAIWG”) Report and Recommendations on the development of a standardized Benefit-Cost Analysis (“BCA”) framework for the Commission.<sup>1</sup> In that Order, the Commission adopted several of the CEAIWG’s Recommendations and opened Phase 2 of this proceeding. To develop the BCA, the Commission noted that it would issue a Request for Proposal within 30 days of the Order to retain a consultant to build a BCA framework and a standardized Commission societal cost test and total resource cost test model.<sup>2</sup>

2. Pursuant to D.C. Code § 34-912 (a)(1), the Commission is authorized to assess a public utility for “its expenses arising from any investigation, valuation, revaluation, or proceeding of any nature by the Commission.”<sup>3</sup> In view of the issues to be examined in this proceeding, the Commission has estimated the necessary and reasonable expenses it will incur in the discharge of its regulatory responsibilities to be $180,000. These responsibilities include retaining consultants to review and evaluate BCA matters and drafting reports, orders, and rulemakings related to the Commission’s findings. Other administrative expenses may also be incurred.

3. The Commission hereby gives notice, pursuant to 15 DCMR § 1401, that the estimated assessment to the Potomac Electric Power Company (“Pepco”) is $90,000 payable in one installment, and the estimated assessment to the Washington Gas Light Company (“WGL”) is $90,000 payable in one installment.<sup>4</sup> If Pepco, WGL, or any other interested persons desire to file comments on the proposed assessment, they may do so within five (5) business days of the date of the issuance of this Notice. After that time, the Commission will take final action regarding this assessment.
