OPEN MEETING SUMMARY

Wednesday, August 10, 2022

The Public Service Commission of the District of Columbia approved three Formal Case action items at its August 10, 2022, Open Meeting:

- 1. Formal Case No. 1156, In the Matter of the Application of Potomac Electric Power Company for Authority to Implement a Multiyear Rate Plan for Electric Distribution Service in the District of Columbia – This Order, among other things, accepts the Second Performance Incentive Mechanism (“PIM”) Working Group Report. The Commission directs Pepco to compile and publish actual performance data for both Calendar Years 2020 and 2021 for four performance tracking metrics (“PTM”) on a dashboard-style website. The Commission reconvenes the PIMs Working Group to make recommendations for annual performance level baseline targets for the next five years. In addition, the Commission directs the PIMs Working Group to make recommendations on the future conversion of the four PTMs into fully functioning PIMs.
- 2. Formal Case No. 1160, In the Matter of the Development of Metrics for Electric Company and Gas Company Energy Efficiency and Demand Response Programs Pursuant to Section 201 (b) of the Clean Energy DC Omnibus Amendment Act of 2018 – This Order grants in part Pepco’s Application to Approve Three-Year Energy Efficiency and Demand Response Program. The Commission approves a modified set of programs, including the following as set forth in Pepco’s Application: (1) Efficient Products Program; (2) Quick Home Energy Check-Up Program; (3) Residential Behavior-Based Program; (4) LMI Home Energy Program; (5) Commercial Behavior-Based Program; (6) Midstream Program; (7) Existing Buildings Program; and (8) Low- and Moderate-Income Community Pilots. The Commission also approves the Small Business Program but modifies the approved program costs. Pepco to implement the approved modified energy efficiency and demand response programs beginning on January 1, 2023, and continuing for three years thereafter, and may recover approved program costs through Rider EEDR.
- 3. Formal Case No. 1169, In the Matter of the Application of Washington Gas Light Company for Authority to Increase Existing Rates and Charges for Gas Service – This Order denies AOBA’s motion requesting that the Commission either reject or hold in Abeyance the Rate Increase Application of WGL and grants AOBA's Supplemental Testimony Motion regarding affiliate services to WGL. The Commission also directs WGL to file supplemental testimony on the IRS private letter ruling. The Commission also grants in part and denies in part OPC's Motion for Partial Summary Judgment and Related Relief, the Sierra Club's Motion to Hold in Abeyance, and the Motion of OPC to Reject WGL's Request for a Condensed Procedural Schedule. The Commission does not designate specific issues for this proceeding and defers identification of issues of material fact in dispute until after all testimony has been filed. The Commission declines to appoint a Settlement Officer in this proceeding. Finally, the Commission adopts a revised procedural schedule.

A copy of the Order is available on the Commission's e-Docket website.
